“Place Matters: Working Together to Create Healthy Communities”

November 1-3, 2010

Portland Marriott Downtown Waterfront

1401 SW Naito Parkway, Portland, Oregon

The environments where we live, work, play, learn and receive health care influence our physical and mental health.

Please come and join others from the Pacific Northwest to share ideas, learn from experts in the field, celebrate successes and identify opportunities to partner and collaborate on the best ways to make our communities healthy for everyone.

This conference is for you if you are:

- In community organizing, public health, transportation, planning, economic development, social justice, healthcare delivery, mental health, alcohol and drug addiction treatment, and worksite wellness
- A community leader or a community member ready to take action
- A tobacco control, physical activity, nutrition, or obesity prevention advocate
- A mental health or substance abuse provider, consumer, or facility manager

Some Conference Objectives:

- Increase understanding of the growing chronic disease epidemic in Oregon and Washington and the risk factors and conditions that drive it.
- Empower participants to use their skills and influence to improve the health of their communities.
- Serve as a professional development opportunity

Registration: $50 for conference participants; $25 for students and seniors. Registration opens Aug. 1, 2010, at: www.healthoregon.org/hpcdp.
