Need to Know

On Feb. 1, we welcome Mallory Temple to OPCA's Sustainability Team. Mallory joins OPCA as a Workforce Manager in supporting you, our health centers, in your workforce needs. Mallory has experience in providing health programming TTA and project management. She understands the challenges, opportunities, and value of supporting a strong primary care workforce. Mallory is also committed to effective communication, teamwork, and is accustomed to working collaboratively to get things done. We think she will be a great fit and asset to OPCA's work, mission, and organization. One of Mallory's first projects is to get FQHC HR leaders virtually together this year.
